

BLOODY RECORD OF AN ALABAMA VILLAGE.

Dastardly Work of Desperate Moonshiners.

RAILROAD WRECK

In Tennessee.—Great Excitement in Texas.—Chapter of Crimes and Casualties.

By United Press.
A BLOODY RECORD.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 2.—Five assassinations within ninety days is the record of Georgiana, a small town in Butler county. This morning the dead and mangled bodies of Tom Shepherd and his wife were found in bed at that place. During the night both had been brained with an axe which was found behind the bed clotted with blood. No cause for the deed is known, but it is believed that the murder was committed because the aged couple were against the moonshiners, a desperate gang who operate in the vicinity. The sheriff and a posse are scouring the country. If caught the murderers will be lynched. Great excitement prevails.

TROUBLE IN TEXAS.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Nov. 2. Andrew Lee, who shot and killed editor Bollen, of the Cotulla Times last summer, was to-day taken to Frio county for trial. It is reported that much ill feeling exists in the county and bloodshed is imminent. Governor Hogg telegraphed here for the State military to hold themselves in readiness to proceed to Frio county at a moment's notice.

TENNESSEE RAILWAY WRECK.

BRISTOL, Tenn., Nov. 2.—Two freights on E. T. V. & Ga. railroad ran into each other this morning 13 miles east of Knoxville and were badly wrecked. The two engines were demolished and a number of cars burned. Brakeman Fallon and a tramp were killed.

EXPOSITION NOTES.

To-morrow Governor A. B. Fleming will speak at the Exposition building. In a telegram yesterday he said: "I will certainly be present. I will not make a formal address, but will speak briefly on the resources of my State, etc."

To-day the Edgecombe Guards, Tarboro, will arrive. Thursday is Goldsboro day. Six hundred pupils from the public schools of that place will attend the Exposition. Of course the very attractive department of Wayne will be the centre of attraction that day.

Friday is Horner School day. The fine battalion of cadets from Oxford will come here and of course will attract much attention. The Charlotte Light Infantry, the only colored company in the State, is in camp at the Exposition grounds, inside the race course. It is commanded by Capt. C. S. L. A. Taylor. With it, as inspector and instructor, is Lt. Alexander, U. S. A. He is a graduate of West Point, from Ohio.

Friday is Winston-Salem day. A great many people from the Twin-City will be present. The beautiful section which represents the industries of Forsyth will have as an "annex" a chrysanthemum show, in which, Dr. Blum says, 200 varieties will be displayed.

Secretary Patrick has arranged for foot races and various other kinds of amusements during the week in addition to the balloon ascensions.

Yesterday afternoon the Charlotte Light Infantry, a colored company, arrived and went into camp on the Exposition grounds, near the colored department. It is under orders and will remain this week.

A GREAT MAGAZINE.

The Century's Programme in 1892.—A New "Life of Columbus"—Articles for Farmers, etc.

The great American periodical, The Century, is going to outdo its own unrivaled record in its programme for 1892, and as many of its new features begin with the November number, new readers should commence with that issue. In this number are the opening chapters of a novel by Rudyard Kipling, the famous author of "Plain Tales from the Hills," written in collaboration with an American writer, Wolcott Balestier. It is the story of a young man and a young woman from a "booming" Colorado town, who go to India, he in search of a wonderful jeweled necklace, called "the Naulahka" (from which the story takes its name,) and she as a physician to women. The novel describes their remarkable adventures at the court of an Indian maharajah. Besides this, The Century will print three other novels during the year, and a great number of short stories by the best American story-writers.

The well-known humorist Edgar W. Nye ("Bill Nye") is to write a series of amusing sketches which he calls his "autobiographies," the first one of which, "The Autobiography of a Justice of the Peace," is in November. This number also contains a valuable and suggestive article on "The Food-Supply of the Future," which every farmer should read, to be followed by a number of others treating especially of the relations of the Government to the farmer, what it is doing and what it should do. This series will include contributions from officers of the Department of Agriculture, and other well-known men will discuss "The Farmer's Discontent," "Co-operation," etc., etc.

A celebrated Spanish writer is to furnish a "Life of Columbus," which will be brilliantly illustrated, and the publishers of The Century have arranged with the managers of the World's Fair to print articles on the buildings, etc.

One of the novels to appear in 1892 is

A STORY OF NEW YORK LIFE by the author of "The Anglomaniacs," and the magazine will contain a great deal about the metropolis during the year—among other things a series of illustrated articles on "The Jews in New York." In November is an illustrated description of "The Players' Club," founded by Edwin Booth, and one of the features of the splendidly illustrated Christmas (December) number is an article on "The Bowery."

To get The Century send the yearly subscription price ($4.00) to The Century Co., Union Square, New York, N. Y.

FROM SIRE TO SON.

Metropolitan Hall Will be The Scene of Great Acting To-night.

The attraction at Metropolitan hall this week is Milton and Dollie Nobles. These popular artists will begin an engagement at this city this evening, presenting Mr. Nobles' last and most successful play, "From Sire to Son." The play opens at the village and camp at Yuba, Cal., in 1860, and successive acts take the audience to Venice, and then to an old castle on the Rhine, giving good opportunities for fine scenic settings of the stage which are well improved. The plot hinges on a curse from Sire to Son of temporary loss of speech under strong excitement. In the first act Alfred Armitage, who has, under the assumed name of John Oakley, been a successful gambler, breaks with his companion, Jonas Hardy, and declares he will never again touch a card. The love for his wife and daughter leads to this determination, but it results in the killing of the wife and the wounding of Armitage by Hardy. The tragedy makes Armitage speechless, and while in that state Hardy escapes to San Francisco, where he assumes Armitage's name, obtains his deposits in the bank, and then secures possession of his daughter, who has been brought up in a convent and has never seen her father. The second act shows the interior of the Yuba Hotel, where, suddenly made aware of the acts of Hardy, Armitage recovers his speech, and declares the grave only shall shield the murderer. In the third act Armitage discovers his daughter in a hotel in Venice, but on denouncing Hardy is arrested as insane. The last act in an old castle on the Rhine brings the villain to bay, and father and daughter are united. The inseparable comedy element is naturally introduced in the characters of Dr. Maraduke and his son Hamilton, who make love alternately to the proprietress of the Yuba Hotel and her daughter. A genuine old mountain coach, drawn by genuine bronchos and filled with genuine passengers, will be an interesting bit of stage realism in "From Sire to Son." Lovers of fine acting will be pleased. Tickets are on sale at Bobbitt's drugstore.

Catarrh

Is a constitutional and not a local disease, and therefore it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, working through the blood, eradicates the impurity which causes and promotes the disease, and effects a permanent cure. Thousands of people testify to the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh when other preparations had failed. Hood's Sarsaparilla also builds up the whole system, and makes you feel renewed in health and strength.

Catarrh

"I used Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh, and received great relief and benefit from it. The catarrh was very disagreeable, especially in the winter, causing constant discharge from my nose, ringing noises in my ears, and pains in the back of my head. The effect to clear my head in the morning by hawking and spitting was painful. Hood's Sarsaparilla gave me relief immediately, while in time I was entirely cured. I am never without Hood's Sarsaparilla in my house as I think it is worth its weight in gold." Mrs. G. H. GIBB, 1029 Eighth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

Catarrh
